

School of Teaching ESL Workshop

Balancing Multi-Level Needs

Description: This workshop focuses on how to differentiate instruction to meet the needs of all students in multi-level classes with particular emphasis on teaching literate and non-literate students together. Participants will experience a multi-level class, discuss instructional strategies, examine lesson plan design, discuss how to adapt lesson content and objectives, and learn about useful resources. Participants will gain knowledge and skills to aid in the preparation, implementation, and evaluation of multi-level teaching.

Presenter: Alysan Croydon

Intended Audience: Teachers working with immigrants and refugees in the United States. Teachers who work with non-literate students and multi-level groups.

Date/Time: 9am-2pm, Saturday, April 17. Cost $80 (incl. light lunch).

Clock Hours: None provided

Refund Policy: Non-Transferable. Workshop tuition is refundable less a $10 administrative fee up until one week prior to the workshop. Refund requests must be in writing and submitted to the School of TESL via fax (206) 781-8922 or email: STESLinfo@seattleu.edu
